

Ignatius Park College 50 Year Celebrations

Ignatius Park College, or as it is known "Iggy Park", has played an important thread in the history of Townsville. This is a special year at Ignatius Park College as we celebrate our 50th year.

The College opened on its current site in Aitkenvale in 1969, continuing the proud all-boys schooling traditions of Our Lady's Mount, which was the first school opened by the Christian Brothers in the Townsville region in 1911. Over the past 50 years, over 8,000 students have graduated through the College. To be an 'Iggy Boy', is a legacy that rests itself on value-rich education, a reputation of brotherhood and looking after your mates
