DISCLAIMERS

As the client, parent/guardian of client or referrer to the client, please read and acknowledge the following disclaimers to ensure you can be added to our waitlist in a timely manner. If you are unable to check off one or more of the following, you will need to find alternative referral pathways which we are happy to assist you with.

I / we understand that...	Please check ✓
The JCU Psychology Clinic is a training clinic for provisional psychologists undertaking post-graduate training, who are supervised by fully registered clinical psychologists.
The JCU Psychology Clinic is a fee-for-service clinic. All fees are set out in the JCU Psychology Clinic fee schedule & will be discussed prior to receiving services.
The JCU Psychology Clinic does not accept referrals that are likely to need more intensive support. The JCU Psychology Clinic do not provide services for the following issues: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Walk-in, crisis, or emergency services • Medico/legal, worker's compensation, family court, or other legal matters • Criminal-related behaviours or concerns • High risk of suicidality or self-harm • High risk of violence to self or others • Current psychotic behaviours
I understand that the JCU Psychology Clinic is a training clinic and as such, provisional psychologists are available to provide services for varying amounts of time. Should my situation mean that I require further sessions beyond the time my clinician is able to provide those services, I will be handed over to a new clinician. I therefore understand that I cannot expect to stay with a particular clinician for any specified period of time.

Please direct all referrals to the 'JCU Psychology Clinic Manager'
