PART 2 - INTERPRETATION

- 2.1 In these Regulations, unless the contrary appears -
- "Academic Year" means the calendar year from 1 January through to 31 December (inclusive).
- "Annual Election" means the Association Election conducted annually in accordance with the Constitution and these Regulations.
- "Association" means the James Cook University Student Association.
- "Association Council" means the Council of the James Cook University Student Association constituted under the Constitution
- "Constitution" means the Constitution of the Association as approved by the University Council.
- "Days" includes weekends and public holidays. If a period of days beginning on a given day, act or event is provided or allowed for a purpose by these Regulations, the period is calculated by excluding the day upon which the act or event occurs and by excluding the day upon which the purpose is to be fulfilled.
- "Elections" includes an electronic election.
- "Finance Department Representative" – means the officer, appointed by the General Manager, with responsibility for the financial management of the Association.
- "General Manager" – means the officer(s) with responsibility for the overall general management of the Association.
- "Office Bearers" means the elected, appointed and ex-officio members of the Association Council under clause 6.2 of the Constitution.
- "Student" means a person who has been admitted and enrolled in a course or subject at the James Cook University, and whose enrolment for that course or subject has not lapsed or been cancelled.
- "University" means the James Cook University as established under the James Cook University Act 1997.

“University Council” means the Council of the James Cook University as established under the James Cook University Act 1997.

PART 3 - STANDING ORDERS

3.1 Application

- 3.1.1 Subject to the Constitution and the Regulations, these standing orders apply to all Association Council, General and Committee meetings.
- 3.1.2 These standing orders can be suspended by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of Meeting Members who are eligible to vote at the meeting.
- 3.1.3 Any matter not dealt with in these standing orders will be determined by the relevant Chair in accordance with the customary procedure at meetings.

3.2 Meeting Members

- 3.2.1 In this part, a ‘Meeting Member’ means any person who is an eligible elected, appointed or ex-officio member of the Association Council or a Committee of the Association Council and includes both voting and non-voting Meeting Members.
- 3.2.2 Unless otherwise indicated all Meeting Members have the right to attend, be heard, to move and second motions and amendments at a meeting and any other rights bestowed in this part.
- 3.2.3 Unless otherwise indicated any other Ordinary or Associate Member has the right to attend, be heard, to move and second motions and amendments at a meeting.

3.3 Notice of Meeting

- 3.3.1 The Secretary is responsible for giving a Notice of Meeting.
- 3.3.2 With the exception of Part 11 and Part 13 of the Constitution dealing with amendments to the Regulations and Constitution of the Association respectively, where there is a seven (7) day notice period required, a notice of Meeting must be given to all Meeting Members five (5) clear days before the date of the meeting.
- 3.3.3 Notice must specify the time, date and place of the meeting.
- 3.3.4 Notice must be published on the official Association Notice board and website at least five (5) days before the date of the meeting.

3.4 Agenda

- 3.4.1 An agenda of the meeting must be included with the notice of the meeting.
- 3.4.2 The agenda must list all matters to be considered by the meeting and the order in which they are to be considered.
- 3.4.3 Meeting agenda papers will be circulated to Meeting Members five (5) business day in advance of the meeting unless or as otherwise approved by the Chair.
- 3.4.4 The agenda cannot be amended, including the order of the agenda, without the consent of a majority of those Meeting Members present and entitled to vote at the meeting.

3.5 Minutes

- 3.5.1 The minutes of a meeting must detail all business dealt with at the meeting and should include all motions and amendments, whether substantive or procedural, all points of order and a summary of the debate identifying all speakers and outlining their arguments.
- 3.5.2 It is the duty of the Secretary to ensure that minutes of proceedings are recorded.
- 3.5.3 It is the duty of the Chair to ensure that minutes of proceedings recorded by the Secretary are reviewed, confirmed and signed. The Minutes should be considered at the subsequent ordinary meeting and subject to any amendment, adopted as a true and accurate record of the proceedings. Any amendment to the Minutes at the subsequent meeting becomes a decision of that subsequent meeting.

3.6 Quorum

- 3.6.1 A quorum for a meeting of the Association Council or a Committee of the Association Council will be half plus one of the voting Meeting Members
- 3.6.2 If a quorum is not present within thirty minutes of the time specified in the notice of the meeting, the meeting shall not proceed.
- 3.6.3 If the Chair becomes aware at any stage of the meeting that a quorum is no longer present, the Chair must stop the meeting and unless a quorum is restored within fifteen (15) minutes, the meeting will lapse.
- 3.6.4 All unfinished business on the agenda at the time of the lapsed meeting, shall be included on the agenda of the next meeting and will take precedence over new business.

3.7 Chair

- 3.7.1 The Chair will be heard in silence and can only be interrupted by a point of order or a call for quorum.
- 3.7.2 The Chair can name any person who disrupts the meeting.
- 3.7.3 Any person named by the Chair three times during a meeting will no longer be heard by the meeting and must immediately leave the meeting.
- 3.7.4 The Chair must rule out of order any motion or amendment, which they consider to be:
  - (a) inconsistent with the Association's Constitution or the Regulations;
  - (b) substantially restating a resolution previously adopted;
  - (c) substantially restating a motion previously put to the vote and lost at the same meeting; or
  - (d) ambiguous or incorrect in form.
- 3.7.5 Meeting Members will respect the authority of the Chair and must address all remarks through the Chair.

3.8 Dissent in the Chair's ruling

- 3.8.1 Any Meeting Member disagreeing with a ruling from the Chair may move 'that the Chair's ruling be dissented from'.
  - 3.8.1.1 The Chair must immediately vacate the Chair and a temporary Chair should take the Chair during the debate.

3.8.1.2 The question is put in the form 'that the Chair's ruling be upheld'.

3.8.1.3 A two-thirds (2/3) majority of Meeting Members is required to overturn the Chair's ruling.

3.9 Attendance

3.9.1 The Secretary of a Meeting is required to ensure all persons participating in a Meeting have the length of their participation recorded along with the capacity in which they attended, the manner in which they participated and details to enable confirmation of which parts they attended if not for the entire meeting.

3.9.2 A Meeting Member is not 'in attendance' according to these Regulations unless they remain present for at least half the duration of the meeting or for at least 2 hours, whichever is less.

3.10 Order of Debate

3.10.1 The order of debate is:

- (a) the mover;
- (b) the seconder;
- (c) alternate speakers for and against the matter; and
- (d) the mover's right of reply.

3.11 Time Limits

3.11.1 Time limits for speaking in formal debate are:

- (a) mover two (2) minutes;
- (b) seconder two (2) minutes;
- (c) speakers for and against two (2) minutes; and
- (d) right of reply two (2) minutes;

3.11.2 Extensions of time may be granted by the Chair.

3.12 Motions and Amendments

3.12.1 All motions, except procedural motions, must be handed to the Chair in writing before they are debated

3.12.2 All motions and amendments must have a mover and a seconder unless they are specifically mentioned as an exception to this requirement in another part of these standing orders.

3.12.3 If the mover or seconder of a motion or amendment is not present or withdraws their moving or seconding, another Meeting Member may take up the moving or seconding.

3.12.4 Movers and seconders of motions and amendments may reserve their speaking rights.

3.12.5 A motion or amendment may be withdrawn at any time by the mover of the motion subject to leave of the meeting.

3.12.6 If a motion is withdrawn by the mover, another Meeting Member present may take up moving rights.

3.12.7 A motion or amendment before the meeting may be reworded by the mover subject to leave of the meeting.

3.13 Motions

3.13.1 A motion:

- (a) must commence with 'that';
- (b) must be specific;
- (c) must be unambiguous;
- (d) must not be worded in the first person;
- (e) may be in parts;
- (f) may incorporate an explanation by way of preamble;
- (g) may be in the negative;
- (h) must not attempt to revive a motion previously rejected;
- (i) must be duly moved and seconded;
- (j) may be amended;
- (k) may be altered by leave;
- (l) may be withdrawn by leave;
- (m) gives a right of reply, thereby closing the debate; and
- (n) may be rescinded.

3.14 Amendments

3.14.1 An amendment:

- (a) must commence with 'that';
- (b) must be specific;
- (c) must be unambiguous;
- (d) must be relevant to the motion;
- (e) must not contradict the motion or any amendment previously adopted;
- (f) must be duly moved and seconded;
- (g) may not be amended;
- (h) may be withdrawn by leave; and
- (i) gives no right of reply.

3.15 Foreshadowed motions

3.15.1 If two or more motions relate to the same matter and are inconsistent with each other, they can be considered together.

3.15.2 The Chair will rule on the order the motions are to be moved.

3.16 Procedural motions

3.16.1 Table 1 outlines the way in which procedural motions will be dealt with.

3.16.2 Procedural motions need not be in writing and do not give right of reply to the mover.

3.16.3 A procedural motion "that the motion now be put" may be moved at any time after, and not before, two (2) speakers have spoken for and two (2) speakers have spoken against the motion.

3.17 Points of order

3.17.1 A Meeting Member can at any time draw the Chair's attention to a breach of procedure or irregularity in the proceedings.

3.17.2 A point of order takes precedence over all other business.

3.17.3 The Meeting Member must state the alleged breach or irregularity and any ruling desired.

3.17.4 The Chair will then rule on the point of order.

3.18 Personal Explanation

3.18.1 A Meeting Member who claims to have been misrepresented during the meeting is entitled to make a personal explanation.

3.18.2 The explanation must be confined to the alleged misrepresentation and must not introduce any new matter.

3.19 Adjournment of meetings

3.19.1 If a meeting is adjourned the Chair must make clear to all those present the time and place the meeting will be reconvened.

3.19.2 The Chair must attempt to notify in writing, or if that is not practicable, by telephone any Meeting Member not present of the time and place the meeting will be reconvened.

3.20 In Camera meetings

3.20.1 A meeting of the Association Council or a Committee can only resolve to proceed in camera to consider business relating to legal, personal or staffing matters or matters that are "commercial in confidence".

3.20.2 No motions can be passed during an in camera meeting, except to leave the in camera session or procedural motions. Any proposed motion pertaining to the in camera discussions must be moved and passed immediately after the in camera session has concluded and the motion will then be recorded in the minutes.

3.20.3 Subject to clauses 3.20.3 and 3.20.4 once a meeting of the Association Council or Committee has resolved to proceed in camera, any person who is not a Meeting Member of the Association Council or that Committee, as the case may be, must immediately leave the meeting.

3.20.4 Subject to clause 3.20.4 a Meeting Member of the Association Council or a Committee, as the case may be, is entitled to remain present during the meeting unless matters to be discussed in camera directly involve, concern or relate to that Meeting Member.

3.20.5 Notwithstanding clauses 3.20.3 and 3.20.4, the Meeting Members at a Meeting of the Association Council or a Committee, as the case may be, may resolve to grant leave to any person to remain present or be present for the meeting.

PART 4 – ASSOCIATION COUNCIL MEETINGS

- 4.1 Timing
  - 4.1.1 The Association Council will meet at Ordinary Meetings at least once each month during the period between March and October of each year, unless the Association Council determines that it is not practicable to do so, however it must meet at least seven (7) times during the year.
  - 4.1.2 The Association Secretary in consultation with the President and General Manager will, at the beginning of the Academic Year, issue a list of dates and times for all Ordinary Meetings of the Association Council.
- 4.2 Chair
  - 4.2.1 The Chair of the Association Council will be the President, unless the President is unwilling to be Chair and the Association Council resolves by a two-thirds (2/3) majority to appoint an alternate Chair from the Meeting Members.
  - 4.2.2 The Chair will preside at all meetings of the Association Council at which the Chair is present.
  - 4.2.3 At any meeting of the Association Council where the Chair is not present, the Vice President will act as Chair. If the President and the Vice President are both absent another Meeting Member of the Association Council will be appointed.
  - 4.2.4 The role of the Chair is to chair the meeting and impartially uphold the standing orders.
- 4.3 Proxies
  - 4.3.1 An appointed voting Meeting Member as specified under 6.2.2 of the Constitution of the Association Council with the exception of the Vice Chancellor's nominee who is unable to attend a meeting of the Association Council may delegate their voting rights to any voting Meeting Member(s) of the Association Council or an alternative individual within their organisation by proxy in writing.
  - 4.3.2 The proxy must be signed and dated by the voting Meeting Member granting it and must specify its duration and the person or persons it is being granted to in preferred order.
  - 4.3.3 The proxy must be received by the Secretary prior to the commencement of the meeting, any reconvened meeting or prior to deliberations on a particular agenda item.
  - 4.3.4 If there is evidence to suggest that a proxy has been obtained by fraud, bribery or intimidation the Chair can rule the proxy invalid. The ruling may be dissented from, but the person whose proxy the Chair has ruled invalid will not be eligible to participate in the vote.

- 4.3.5 Unless expressly indicated otherwise, a proxy will be a general proxy and the powers of the voting Meeting Member holding the proxy are the same as those of the voting Meeting Member of the Association Council.
- 4.3.6 The voting Meeting Member may grant a conditional proxy by expressly stating in the written document that the proxy is subject to specific listed conditions.
- 4.3.7 No voting Meeting Member can exercise more than two (2) votes.
- 4.3.8 In determination of whether a quorum exists proxies shall not be counted.
- 4.3.9 A proxy lapses when the voting Meeting Member is present at the meeting, or any reconvened meeting, for which the proxy was given.

4.4 Meetings

- 4.4.1 The Secretary will call special meetings of the Association Council when the President considers it necessary or as required by written notice addressed to the Association's Secretary from not less than fifty (50) percent of the voting Meeting Members of the Association Council or from not less than one (1) percent of the Ordinary Members of the Association.
- 4.4.2 The Association Council may adopt a resolution that creates policy either on its own initiative or if it is recommended to the Association Council by a standing committee.
- 4.4.3 All meetings by the Association Council and Committee shall include an 'Acknowledgement of Country' of the traditional owners and shall be undertaken by the chairperson at the commencement of each meeting

4.5 Voting

- 4.5.1 Unless conducting an appointment of Office Bearers (4.6 of these Regulations), voting will be by show of hands.
- 4.5.2 Where a simple majority of the voting Meeting Members of the Association Council vote in favor of a motion the Chair must call the vote carried.
- 4.5.3 Where a simple majority of the voting Meeting Members of the Association Council vote against a motion the Chair must call the vote lost.
- 4.5.4 Where the vote of the voting Meeting Members of the Association Council on a motion is tied, the Chair must call the vote lost.
- 4.5.5 The Meeting should record in the minutes the number of votes for and against of every vote that is not unanimously agreed/disagreed upon.

4.6 Appointment of Office Bearers by Council

- 4.6.1 The following Regulations apply whenever the Association Council is required to appoint a person to fill a vacancy under Section 6.5 of the Constitution.

4.6.2 The Secretary or a nominee will act as Returning Officer.

4.6.3 Nominations for the appointments will be called for on the Association's Website and on the Association's Official Notice Board fourteen (14) days before the date of the Association Council meeting at which the positions are to be filled.

4.6.3.1 Nominations for the appointments may only be called for during teaching weeks of Study Periods 1 & 2 as defined by the JCU Academic Calendar.

4.6.4 The nominations must be in the form required by Part 8 of the Regulations.

4.6.5 Candidates may attend the Association Council meeting at which the election is to take place and must be given the opportunity to present verbal and/or written submissions to the Association Council.

4.6.6 Meeting Members of the Association Council may ask questions of the candidate through the Chair.

4.6.7 Elections must be held by secret ballot (see 4.7.1).

4.6.8 When a casual vacancy must be filled, appointment by the Association council must only be voted on by student elected representatives.

4.7 Secret Ballot

4.7.1 A vote conducted by Secret Ballot, including appointments by the Association Council, will be held via an electronic system of voting where votes are received by the Secretary of the Association and votes remain confidential.

4.8 Conflict of Interest

4.8.1 If a Meeting Member of the Association Council becomes aware of any conflict of interests between their own personal interests or those of an associate and the interests of the Association and/or has a pecuniary interest in any matter directly or indirectly involving or concerning the Association, that Meeting Member must as soon as that conflict of interests or pecuniary interest becomes apparent, disclose the nature and extent of their interest to the Association.

4.8.2 If the conflict of interests or pecuniary interest becomes apparent in advance of a meeting of the Association Council, the Meeting Member is to disclose their interest at the commencement of the meeting of the Association Council.

4.8.3 If the conflict of interests or pecuniary interest becomes apparent during a meeting of the Association Council, the Meeting Member is to disclose their interest immediately.

4.8.4 If the conflict of interests or pecuniary interest becomes apparent after a meeting of the Association Council, the Meeting Member is to disclose their interest immediately to the Association.

- 4.8.5 A disclosure of a conflict of interests or pecuniary interest must be recorded in the Minutes of the meeting of the Association Council or in the case of a disclosure pursuant to clause 4.8.4, in the Minutes of the next meeting of the Association Council.
- 4.8.6 A Meeting Member of the Association Council who has a conflict of interests or a pecuniary interest in any matter directly or indirectly involving or concerning the Association:
- 4.8.6.1 must not, without the prior approval of a majority of the Association Council, be involved in any discussion on the matter.
  - 4.8.6.2 must not, without the prior approval of a majority of the Association Council, participate in deliberations regarding the matter
  - 4.8.6.3 must not seek to lobby or influence other Meeting Members.
  - 4.8.6.4 must not, without the prior approval of a majority of the Association Council, vote on any motion regarding the matter.
  - 4.8.6.5 must leave the meeting of the Association Council for the duration of the deliberations regarding the matter if a majority of the Association Council so resolves, having regard to the nature of the conflict of interests or pecuniary interest.
