

Outback Allied Health

“Realising potential and inspiring change”

TIME	SESSION	PRESENTATIONS
10.30am		Registration
11.00am	Welcome to Country	Aunty Karen West, Kalkadoon Elder
11.15am	Welcome to the Forum	Catrina Felton-Busch, CRRH, JCU
11.30am	Keynote speaker Chair: Catrina Felton-Busch (CRRH, JCU)	Liza-Jane McBride Chief Allied Health Officer, AHPOQ
12.00pm	Who’s doing what after the wet? Spotlight on local services and agencies  Chair: Ella Dunsford (CRRH)	12.00 North West Hospital & Health Service - Allied Health 12.05 Department of Education 12.10 Gidgee Healing 12.15 NWRH 12.20 Centre for Rural & Remote Health, James Cook University
12.30pm	Infront Outback: Allied health leading change Presentations from allied health staff and researchers  Chair: Ella Dunsford (CRRH)	12.30 Repatriating a dietetic renal service in rural North West Queensland 12.35 Leaping into Learning: The development of a group play and language intervention program 12.40 Read & Grow: A community training package for language and literacy development 12.45 Questions 12.50 Compounding medications in a rural setting: an inter- professional perspective ( Poster - continues over lunch )
1.00pm	Lunch - Please join us on the front lawn for information about services, organisations and postgraduate training
2.00pm	Technology: Changing the way we can do business Presentations from allied health staff and researchers  Chair: Chelsey Carr (Gidgee Healing)	2.00 Using telerehabilitation to bridge gaps in acute physiotherapy service provision in the Lower Gulf: A pilot discussion 2.15 Mentoring regional and remote care providers in the management of clubfoot 2.30 Navigating the Challenges of Introducing a Sub-acute Pathway to North West Queensland: Learning Together 2.45 Using Telehealth to realise the potential of a collaborative High-Risk Foot service model 2.50 Recovering in the Outback: A review of the Australian stroke survivor’s perspective 2.55 Questions

Outback Allied Health Forum: Tuesday, 11th June, 2019

Outback Allied Health

"Realising potential and inspiring change"

TIME	SESSION	PRESENTATIONS
3.10pm	Who's doing what after the wet? (cont'd) Spotlight on partner organisations Chair: Jarrod Badcock (NWRH)	3.10 Western Queensland Primary Health Network 3.15 Health Workforce Queensland 3.20 HOT North 3.25 Northern Australia Research Network 3.30 Indigenous Allied Health Australia
3.40pm	Afternoon tea
4.00pm	School of the Outback: Growing the allied health workforce Presentations from allied health staff and researchers Chair: Georgia Lunn (DoE)	4.00 Exercise Physiology in rehab: the uppers and downers 4.15 Inspiring the Future Rural Pharmacy Workforce: a Role for the University 4.30 Questions 4.35 Developing research partnerships to support innovation: A Cape York community rehabilitation project 4.40 What do students think of a student assisted community rehabilitation program? 4.45 The development of a Parkinson's disease group program: Allied health students take the lead 4.50 Implementing an inter-professional service learning model for a remote outback community 4.55 The factors that influence vocational paths of speech pathology graduates from a regional Australian university 5.00 The Benefits and Challenges of Interprofessional Education in Practice 5.05 Questions
5.15pm	Keynote speaker Chair: Sarah Jackson (CRRH, JCU)	Marayah Taylor (Keynote speaker) Proud Aboriginal woman who was born in Mt Isa            Indigenous Liaison Officer, The Townsville Hospital            Studying Bachelor of Social Work, James Cook University
5.45pm	Awards &amp; Acknowledgements
6.00pm	Networking function
8.00pm	Goodnight!	