Ports North

Connecting Communities, Powering Possibilities

At Ports North, we do more than manage ports—we help shape the future of Far North Queensland. From Cairns to the Torres Strait and across the Cape, we operate nine regional and remote ports that are vital to the lives, livelihoods, and growth of the communities we serve.

We're proud to be one of Australia's most diverse port operators, supporting a wide range of industries—from trade and transport to tourism, marine services, and defence. Our strategic presence allows us to create real economic opportunity while supporting social and environmental sustainability.

Whether it's enabling children to get to school by ferry in the Torres Strait, supporting local businesses through tourism and superyacht arrivals in Cairns, or helping remote communities export vital resources to the world—our work connects people and places with purpose.

We're deeply invested in the future of our region. That means maintaining and upgrading essential infrastructure, attracting investment and industry, and working hand-in-hand with communities to unlock long-term benefits.

We believe in enabling possibility—for families, businesses, and the future of Far North Queensland.

Community Investment Opportunities

We're committed to supporting initiatives that make a real difference in the regions where we operate. When reviewing applications, we will prioritise those that meet the following key criteria:

1. Support for Our Local Regions

We give priority to projects that directly benefit the areas where Ports North operates. This includes Cairns, Mourilyan, Karumba, the Torres Strait Islands, Cape Flattery, Skardon River, Quintell Beach, Burketown, and Cooktown.

2. Boost Economic Opportunities and Community Connections

We're looking for initiatives that improve financial skills, open up job or business opportunities, or strengthen community support networks.

3. Create Sustainable and Long-Term Impact

As most funding will be one-off, we encourage projects that will continue to deliver benefits beyond the life of the funding, without relying on ongoing support from Ports North.
