

JAMES COOK
UNIVERSITY
AUSTRALIA

Library & Information Services

Digital Humanities @JCU 2016

brought to you by

James Cook University Library

Date: Thursday 3 November

Time: 8:45am - 12:45pm

Townsville: 18.002B

Cairns: B1.031

Morning tea will be provided

RSVP: By Wednesday 26 October to <http://tiny.cc/d9v7ey>

Definitions of digital humanities vary. However, there is agreement that digital humanities exists where there is an overlap between technology and the humanities and social sciences. The event program shows the great variety of digital humanities work research underway at JCU.

Find out what is happening at our university in this exciting field.

Enquiries to:

Claire Ovaska
Library & Information Services
Claire.Ovaska@jcu.edu.au
Ph: 4781 4216

---

Cairns

---

Singapore

---

Townsville

Preliminary Event Information

Speakers A-Z	Topics
Mr Daniel Baird & Ms Clair Meade eResearch Centre &amp; JCU Library, Townsville	Digital foundations for humanities research
A/Prof. Jennifer Deger Social Sciences, Cairns	Making things lively: An experiment with cut-and-paste poetics
Dr Simon Foale Social Sciences, Townsville	Using imagery to communicate complex scientific concepts to a low-literacy community
Mr Jonathan Kuttainen Social Sciences, Townsville	Digital financial services and development: Mobile money in Uganda
Mr Rohan Lloyd Humanities, Townsville	Applied heritage: Townsville City Libraries heritage tours and trails apps
Mr Ben Menadue Humanities &amp; Social Science, Cairns	Through a lens, brightly: How analysis of 20th Century science fiction can illuminate research impacts
Prof. Richard Nile Humanities, Townsville	Digital humanities and the art of time travel
Dr Simon Overall Language &amp; Culture Research Centre, Cairns	Documentation of Awajún traditional plant knowledge in Amazonas, Peru
Dr Martin Potter Humanities, Townsville	Big stories, small towns and acts of co-creation
Dr Mangalam Sankupellay Information Technology, Townsville	AB <sup>3</sup> - Australian Backyard Bird Box: Enticing urban dwellers to engage with local birds around their home
Dr Ariella Van Luyn Humanities, Townsville	Digital touch and creative interactions: Archaeological objects and storytelling in the virtual museum (a project with Dr Shelley Greer and Mr John Edgar)

Panel Members

Prof. Richard Nile (Chair) Humanities, Townsville	Prof. Ian Atkinson eResearch Centre, Townsville
Dr Sarah Galletly Humanities, Townsville	Prof. Chris Walsh Education, Townsville

Enquiries to: Claire Ovaska
Library & Information Services
Claire.Ovaska@jcu.edu.au
Ph: 4781 4216