

TOWNSVILLE GRAMMAR SCHOOL

HEAD OF FACULTY – EDUCATIONAL SUPPORT (7-12)

Townsville Grammar School is one of the original Grammar Schools of Queensland. The Year 7-12 campus is located on the original site at North Ward. The School also operates two Junior School campuses, both offering Pre-Prep to Year 6, at Annandale and North Shore.

Townsville Grammar School is a co-educational, non-denominational School with a current enrolment of approximately 1250 students, including 125 boarders (7-12) of whom approximately 25 are international students.

As one of the eight original Grammar schools in Queensland, Townsville Grammar School was established in 1888 and has offered boarding since this time. The School has a long-standing reputation as the leading academic school in Northern Queensland, also offering the International Baccalaureate Diploma Programme for Years 11 and 12.

The School seeks applicants for the pivotal role of Head of Faculty – Educational Support to commence Term 2, 2024 (15 April). This leadership position entails management of learning and disability support services and programs, including the Nationally Consistent Collection of Data for Students with Disability. This role has the responsibility for the management of Educational Support Teacher Aides, including class time and performance. Administration support is also provided for the Head of Faculty – Educational Support.

Applicants must be supportive of the aims and ethos of Independent Schools and be willing to participate in the co-curricular and pastoral life of the School. They must be willing to work collaboratively with various stakeholders internally at the School to achieve the needs of the students.

A position description is available from the School's website. Enquiries, in the first instance, should be directed to Dr Carolyn Moores email: carolyn.moores@tgs.qld.edu.au.
